PEACHES
TIGRE PACKING COMPANY.
At this season of the year when fresh fruit is unobtainable except at prohibitive prices, you can still procure from your grocer our tinned peaches which are as good as fresh gathered fruit and as cheap as ever. Although there are several so called "Tigre" Brands, ours is the only one bearing the "Tiger" upon it, and this we can guarantee as being of the very best obtainable fruit.
The process of canning renders these peaches more wholesome than fresh fruit, and they are specially recommended for children and invalids.
We do not consider it necessary to quote testimonials, but ask you to do us the favour to obtain the opinion of your medical man.

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

We have London papers to the 19th ult. The case of Florence St. John against her husband resulted in the court refusing a divorce but granting a judicial separation.

The Dowager Lady de Ros died at 19, Eaton place. Lady de Ros was a daughter of the fourth Duke of Richmond, and was born in 1795. She married, in 1824, the 20th Baron de Ros, who died in 1874. It will be remembered that the authority of Lady de Ros was cited in the correspondence which appeared some time ago with regard to the site of the ball given by the Duke of Richmond in Brussels on the eve of the Battle of Waterloo, her ladyship having been present at the ball as a daughter of the house.

A Melbourne telegram says that the report of the committee of inquiry presented to a meeting of the shareholders of the Land Credit Bank asserts that Mr. Taylor, the manager of the bank, had committed frauds amounting to over £100,000. Large overdrafts had been concealed from the directors. The meeting resolved that the institution should be wound up. Mr. Clearly, the accountant of the South Melbourne Building Society, a relative of Mr. Larkin, whose frauds on the society will, it is feared, reach £100,000, has been arrested. At a meeting of the Colonial Investment Society, Sir Matthew Davies, Speaker of the Legislative Assembly, said that the recent failures in the city had increased the commercial depression and caused distrust on the part of investors. The meeting resolved to absorb £110,000 from the reserve fund to meet losses.

There has been a riot in the Island of St. Vincent, British West Indies, owing to the attempt of the Government to pass a law providing for the reduction of the number of judges of the Appeal Court from four to three. The people protested against the proposed measure, but the British Colonial Office directed the Governor to carry through the law. When the Governor arrived from Grenada the people followed him shouting and hooting, causing him to take refuge in the Government office. Her Majesty's sloop Buzzard was summoned from Barbadoes and arrived shortly afterwards at Kingston, the capital of St. Vincent. Captain Browne went ashore, when a crowd of 600 people surrounded his carriage and began to throw stones. Captain Browne was hit and wounded by the missiles, and the carriage was damaged. After the captain had reached the Government offices the crowd paraded the streets and threw stones at the house, several persons inside being injured. Affairs became so threatening that it was found necessary to land thirty seamen. They succeeded in clearing the streets, but on Captain Browne leaving the Government office in the evening, he was again attacked by a furious crowd, and bloodshed would surely have occurred if seventy seamen, with a Nordenfeld gun, had not arrived, and restored order. The Governor ultimately summoned the Legislative Council and introduced the measure, which was passed by the vote of the official majority against the unanimous vote of the unofficial members.

Affairs in Russia appear to grow worse day by day. All classes of the community are discouraged by the half-hearted measures taken by the Government to relieve the famine districts. The important measures reported to be undertaken by the new Imperial Commission are as yet only on paper. The sums said to have been voted by the Government and the munificent donations of the Imperial Family are being frittered away by the local authorities, of whose inexperience advantage has been taken by small speculators in the purchases they have made. The difficulties of the Government and the consequences of the famine are only now commencing to be realised. The dealers and export merchants complain that the prohibition of the export of grain not having been intimated at an earlier period, they entered into the usual contracts, and the enormous amount of grain, except rye, now lying at the ports and frontier stations is unsaleable except to the Government, their capital is locked up, and they have no means to enter into business for the future. The Government have not as yet devised any means for the payment of the grain they have prohibited from being exported. General discontent prevails, and there is nothing but insolvency throughout the country.

Vienna, 17th. The Emperor Francis Joseph has been indisposed for the past two days. His illness is stated to be of a slight nature, but nevertheless he has been ordered by his physicians to keep his bed.

Mr. Hauser, a Radical, has been elected President of the Swiss Confederation for 1892; and M. Schenk, also a Radical, Vice-President.

Berlin, 18th—The Reichstag to-day proceeded to the third reading of the Commercial Treaties. Herr von Helldorff, who opened the debate, said that he fully appreciated the motives which prompted the Imperial Chancellor to break with the system of commercial isolation. He was followed by Her von Kardoff, the advocate of bi-metallism and protection, who opposed the Treaties principally on the ground of the long period for which they had been concluded. General von Caprivi, in reply, contrasted the fears expressed by Her von Kardoff with the hopeful prospects which in his (the Chancellor's) opinion the new treaties presented. The Imperial Chancellor denied Her von Kardoff's right to ascribe to the Federal Government motives which had no existence, and concluded by declaring that if the deputy failed to see any political significance in the McKinley Bill and in the pan-American policy, he must decline to discuss foreign policies with him. After a protracted debate, the House passed the third reading of the commercial treaty with Austria-Hungary by 243 against 48 votes. The Cattle Disease Convention with Austria and the commercial treaties with Italy and Belgium were adopted en bloc, after which the Reichstag adjourned for the Christmas recess until January 12th.

The Emperor has to-day, on the occasion of the adoption of the commercial treaties by the Reichstag, conferred upon General Caprivi, the Imperial Chancellor, the title of Count.

Cairo 18th—Before leaving Korosko Father Ohrwalder, the Austrian missionary, now on his way to Cairo, made a statement as to the situation of some forty other European prisoners still detained at Omdurman and subjected to the most degrading thraldom. They include nineteen Greeks, eight Syrians, eight Jews, and two members of the Austrian mission. All these unfortunate captives are loaded with chains and manacles, and from time to time are cruelly beaten. They are under the constant supervision of their gaolers, and have long abandoned all hope of escape.

Washington, 18th—The Post to-day says that Mr. Elkins visited Mr. Blaine before accepting the portfolio for War, and asked him what effect his appointment would have upon his (Mr. Blaine's) chance of being elected President in 1892. The Secretary of State replied, "Absolutely none, as I feel at present that I shall not be a candidate. If, however, there should come to me from the Republican party an overwhelming expression demanding that I should accept the nomination, I may feel constrained to put aside personal feeling and accept it."

Jan. 12.

The heat here is simply unbearable, and people are rushing off to the "playas" to take a dip and get a breath of fresh air. The Pocitos is crowded every evening and so far appears to be the most fancied bathing-resort.

The saladero season has begun, and all the saladeros are working briskly.

The Government appears to be completely in the dark in regard to Dr. Ellauri's negotiations in London. The arrangements have not been confirmed, and as for the Uruguayan Bank business, nothing is known about it. The papers say that this London business will give rise to a cabinet crisis here.

The vessels in port are to display all their bunting on the 18th, to commemorate the reduction of the port-dues.

The Spanish school-ship Nautilus from Cadiz and the U. S. cruiser Chicago from Barbadoes have arrived here en route for the Pacific.

The Ortegal, which has arrived here from Rio, has two cases of yellow fever on board. One proved fatal. She has landed 85 passengers on Flores Island, and it is reported that a fresh case has broken out amongst them.

The wool-market is pretty active: 125,000 lbs. are reported sold at 24 to 28 reales per fleece.

The Chambers did not meet yesterday, which shews that the Government has received no advices from London about the Bank Project.

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

The Interior is quiet, although the political fireworks continue. On Sunday, in San Juan, the Acuerdistas carried everything before them at the election of 14 Deputies and 1 Senator. A good deal of "spontaneous voting" was observed, by which is meant that people who belonged to no party came forward and used their dearest right as citizens. We like the idea of "spontaneous voting", although we fear it will soon degenerate, like a "spontaneous public manifestation", which in these latitudes has long since lost its pristine feature of spontaneity, only the name remaining, for it takes a month at least now to organize a spontaneous manifestation. The word spontaneous is rapidly coming into vogue. It is a humane word, since the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals patronise it. Their worthy and indefatigable President qualifies the Rosario public as a "spontaneous brute", and now we have spontaneous voting. The next thing will be spontaneous representation, then spontaneous presidents, and finally political spontaneous combustion, ending in smoke, as most things do here.

Another finance-minister going, but not yet gone, in La Plata. Our prophetic soul is rarely wrong. The brand new Finance Minister of the Queen Province was so disgusted at the Budget debate in the Senate on Monday that he seized his hat and was heard to say: "I will resign." He went to the Finance Office and had just begun to pen his resignation when a corps d'armee of admiring representatives burst into his study and besought him, in the name of province and patriotism, friendship and finances, not to send in his resignation, or at least to await the return of the Governor, who was absent on an electoral tour to Bragado. Minister Moreno pocketed his feelings and, with that lofty patriotism which has always been the most cherished characteristic of Argentina's sons in general and finance-ministers in particular, consented to withdraw his resignation. A telegram was immediately forwarded to the peripatetic Governor, who returned in a special train yesterday morning. Minister Moreno and the Governor were closeted together for several hours, and it is to be presumed that the Governor's genius of persuasiveness achieved another triumph over the prejudices of the Minister. Mr. Moreno, it is said, recalling a similar and heroic moment in the career of Camillus, exclaimed: "Governor, you have saved your finances, but you have done for your Minister. The Governor was in a "moreno" study all day yesterday.

There is a terrible state of excitement in Cordoba. The Government there has ordered the arrest of all the electors appointed on the 15th Nov. The result is that Dr. Pedro Funes Lastra and a dozen other respectable gentlemen have been thrown into prison. We note that they have been put in the dungeon reserved for drunkards, although there is considerable difference between an elector and a drunkard, whatever the Cordoba Government may say to the contrary. In the meantime the Cadeneros are kicking over newsboys and burning their papers. Yet Cordoba is reported quiet! Mendoza too is quiet and so is Rioja, and long may they remain so.

ENGLISH BANK OF THE RIVER PLATE.

A meeting of the shareholders convened by the Official Receiver, was held at the Holborn Restaurant, Mr. C. J. Stewart (Official Receiver and Provisional Liquidator) in the chair.

The Chairman: Gentlemen, I should wish, first of all, to explain to you the reason for the delay in holding the meeting. As you are aware, most, if not the entire portion, of your assets are in the Argentine, and on those assets your future position as shareholders very largely depends. At the first moment of making the winding-up order the question was considered as to whether there could be a liquidation for the benefit of all parties from the head office in London. The official Receiver had the opportunity of consulting Dr. Plaza, an eminent Argentine lawyer, who is now in this country. He was good enough to call and see the Official Receiver, and give him an explanation of Argentine law as regards the assets and liabilities of the branches. From that it was made clear that the local laws would prevail, and that creditors on those branches (not only local creditors, but those persons having special securities—for example, bill-holders) would have the right to come on those assets first in priority to London office creditors, who would not have the right to rank or to interfere with those assets until the local creditors were paid in full. That system is carried so far that even after the local creditors are satisfied the different branches, if they have any claim on each other, rank, and the surplus, if any, after the branches are satisfied, and only after that, is remitted to the head office. It became at once very important to ascertain what surplus, if any, there was in Buenos Ayres, and also to take every step in order to rescue and save that surplus for the benefit of the shareholders and creditors. With a view of saving expense, it was first suggested that a local gentleman might well be asked to represent the Official Receiver in that country; but, having regard to the very large interests involved and the difficult position in which a local gentleman would be placed who might have to find fault, or to report unfavourably, perhaps, on persons with whom he might be intimately connected, it was considered that the best course would be to have an independent report. Mr. Williams, the solicitor in the matter, was good enough to suggest the name of Mr. Kendal, a gentleman who is a director of the Union Bank and of a well-known insurance office, and who is also well acquainted with the Spanish language, and connected with South American affairs as a merchant; and the Official Receiver is indebted to him for the very valuable reports which have been received since his departure. He left England at the commencement of September, and arrived on October 1 or October 2. The last report received from him was mailed on November 11. In the meantime the assets, so far as possible, have been realised in England. A sum of about £120,000 has been realised from that source, the list of contributories has been settled, and application has been made to the court for leave to make a call. The statement of affairs at the head office shows gross liabilities of about £3,000,000. Of that amount about £60,000 represents bill-holders who have the right to lodge claims against the branches. As regards the rights of those bill-holders, Messrs. Freshfield and Williams, at my request, have taken the opinion of counsel, who advise that the bill-holders have a right to prove at the head office against those assets for the purpose of voting at this meeting, but that their right to rank for dividend can only be when the creditors have received an equivalent to the dividend declared abroad. As regards the book debts on the other side, there appears about £200,000, being debtors to the estate who have lodged securities, which securities are held by the branches. Those claims can, therefore, not be enforced by the head office to that extent for the present. Turning then to the Buenos Ayres accounts, the assets are estimated to realise close on £3,000,000. The account on page 2 shows a face value account, but the account on page 6 shows what can be expected with reasonable certainty from the realisation of those assets, and this account shows a diminution of about £600,000 in the value of those assets, and that would, of course, affect the surplus to that extent. As regards the Buenos Ayres branch, the distribution of 20 per cent. has been made. With reference to the Rosario branch, a distribution, I am informed, of 15 per cent. has been made, and it is anticipated that the liabilities will all be shortly cancelled by a system of cancellation; that is, that persons who are creditors of the bank transfer their rights to those who are debtors, so that the surplus is a possible asset of £50,000. I cannot speak very positively as to that, but there seems a fair prospect of realising some £50,000 surplus on the Rosario branch. As regards the Montevideo branch, the latest reports state that a sum of about £200,000 should be deducted from the value of those assets, making, therefore, a total reduction of about £800,000 of the surplus mentioned in the account. The system of cancellation at Montevideo has been carried on extensively; £74,000 has already been actually paid in this way; some £285,000 is expected to be wiped off very shortly. As to the Buenos Ayres branch, a sum of over £140,000 will be required to rescue those assets in the event of the cancellation not extinguishing the liabilities. That makes a deduction of £697,000, being the total of amounts likely to be realised by July from the total amount of the existing liabilities of £836,800. It would, therefore, appear necessary that that amount should be found before July of next year. At that date the moratorium which has been granted expires, and I am informed that that moratorium cannot under any circumstances be renewed. If the assets are not rescued by that date, it will involve a local liquidation, which, I am told, is even more expensive than liquidation here. As regards Montevideo, there is one point which I feel it my duty to draw your attention to. It involves a very serious question for shareholders, and, however pleasant the news may be to the creditors, I fear that it will involve shareholders in a further possible liability. It is this: On the debit side of the account were notes emitted, £159,180. Under the Act, 1862, the liability of banks in respect of notes was limited to notes issued in the United Kingdom. An Act was passed in 1879 by which that section was repealed, and the Act of 1869 does not limit the liability of shareholders to notes in the United Kingdom, but appears to extend the liability to an unlimited extent in respect of notes emitted in other parts of the world. There is, therefore, I am advised by counsel, a further liability on the shareholders individually and collectively for this further amount of £159,180, and the point that the assets at Montevideo are sufficient, it is estimated, to cover those claims will not relieve the shareholders from making good that amount in the general assets. The whole matter seems to point to the desirability of some scheme by which a company might be formed to take over the assets and liabilities, a certain portion of the claims remaining as debentures or preference shares in that company. I am told that the desire to do that exists to a large extent not only in England, but in the Argentine. Depositors out there, I am told, are quite willing to allow a large portion of their deposits to remain, and that is evidenced by the fact that although a distribution has taken place out there, a large portion of the depositors have not claimed their distribution. That, however, is a matter which, perhaps, you will not care to go into at this meeting. I understand that one of the directors would like to make some observations to you.

A Shareholder inquired what steps the directors had taken to recover the money abstracted by one of their co-directors.

The Chairman said that that matter was still sub judice, so he would suggest that that should be left out of the discussion.

Mr. Glynn (a director) said he was glad of that opportunity to make a statement to the shareholders, because it had been a subject of regret to himself, as well as to his colleagues, that they had no opportunity of communicating with the shareholders since the suspension of the bank. So far as he and his colleagues were concerned, they had nothing to keep back, and were quite prepared to give all the information in their power. Confining his remarks to the action of the directors for the period commencing about 1889, he said that that date coincided with the time when the transaction took place at Buenos Ayres, which the report of the Official Receiver stated caused in a great measure the ultimate failure of the bank. That transaction was entered into without the knowledge of the directors in London, and they were not informed of it until it was too late for them to cancel it. One of the parties to whom the advance was made was reported to be one of the wealthiest men in the River Plate, and they were informed that the security against which the advance was made was undoubted. The position of affairs in the River Plate at that time was anxious, but was in no sense critical, beyond, in the opinion of the board, a very serious error of judgment in locking up so large an amount of the funds of the bank. They had no reason to find fault with the local management. Under the circumstances, the directors took the only course possible by largely reducing the acceptances of the bank so as to meet any immediate or prospective emergency. Mr. Jones, the business manager in Buenos Ayres, had been home in the autumn of 1890, and had gone into matters with the board; but on his return to Buenos Ayres he at once wrote to say that matters were even worse than he anticipated. The gold premium remained at an abnormally high figure, and then came a severe run upon the foreign banks at Buenos Ayres, and some of them succumbed, and during that period this bank paid £500,000 in gold over the counter. Then a moratorium was decreed in consequence of which it was impossible to collect debts and send forward the remittances necessary to meet bills drawn upon the bank for the other side. They were then obliged to have recourse to borrowing from the reserve fund, and they were at last under the necessity of looking for aid outside, which they had reason to hope they might obtain. They could not do so, however, owing to the great depression in Argentine trade, and after seven weeks of suspense and anxiety they were obliged to announce the suspension of the bank.

Lord George Hamilton (a director,) in reply to a shareholder, said that, in the month of June, there was a prospect of the company being able to tide over the immediate difficulties which were ahead of the bank, and, considering that the dividend had been earned for the past six months, the board decided to pay it.

Considerable discussion ensued, and, in the end, it was proposed by Mr. Bruce Gardine that an application be made to the High Court of Justice for the appointment of Mr. Thomas Abercrombie Welton as liquidator of the English Bank of the River Plate, in place of the Official Receiver.

Mr. Gotto seconded the motion, which, after a great deal of discussion, was carried, with two dissentients.

Mr. Scott then moved: "That an application be made to the High Court of Justice for the appointment of a committee of inspection to act with the liquidator of the English Bank of the River Plate Limited."

Dr. Drysdale seconded the motion, which was agreed to.

It was further resolved that the members of the committee be the three following contributors: Mr. E. Gotto, Mr. Robert Hardie, and Mr. Robert Kidd.

The proceedings closed with a vote of thanks to the chairman.

FROM MENDOZA.

(Our own Correspondent.)

Of course the chief topic in this provincial capital is the result of the past elections for a "Gobernador", and who shall be the next "Intendente"; the elections for that city functionary's post ended last Sunday only, from which has arisen much dissatisfaction amongst the many "partidos." Here it seems that the discontented "Mendocinos" will never have done with politics, as it takes the highest place in their not over sensible heads. It would be a far much better plan to leave electioneering a little more alone, so that they would be able to give their time and energies more to the grape-growing and wine-making industries of their province, which considering they have been in vogue for the past 20 years have not advanced sufficiently in quality (in quantity, yes), to take their place on the family dinner tables in Buenos Ayres. Now, in some family houses in the capital, they are beginning to use their home wines, but this is chiefly the result of the crisis why they take Mendoza and San Juan wine.

On the 12th. and 13th. insts. there appeared a very well written article, of 5 columns, in "Los Andes" newspaper of this city by señor Aureliano A. de Parga, on Mendoza as a wine market, etc. dealing very extensively on the elaboration of the native wine, the requirements needed for same, but above all perseverance by those in the industry itself. Further on, he says the ground is better adapted for the vines than France or Spain, and needs only capital and the proper utensils for making the wine, with an equal good knowledge of the business and plenty of energy, as as good wine can be produced here (not at first) as that imported from abroad.

The average quantity of wine per year made in Mendoza is 200,000 hordalesas and San Juan from 150,000 upward. One bodega, that of Sr. Benegas, sent out about 30,000 bordalesas alone last year.

The cosecha this year it is reported will be the largest known up to the present, but unfortunately is crippled the advantage of having a good crop of grapes, for the wine making purposes by the extraordinary high tariff existing on the Argentine Gr. Western Ry. for the carriage of grapes or wine from the Andine provinces to the Capital.

There has lately been opened in Mendoza a crystal glass factory with all new machinery and the requisite necessaries for working of same. Shortly the almacenes here will be stocked with it, then will we be able to see what it is like. Some who have already seen a few samples turned out of this "Fabrica" say it is superior and will compete against that coming from Buenos Aires and abroad.

Of railway news at present there is little. The 30% reduction on the tariffs for cargo going over the G. O. A. line has put the commercial centre of the Andine countries in a better humour. But I have noticed a question has lately cropped up (which in all probabilities will be a long and important one), amongst the paper-paid employes of the same line, referred to above, gold salaries. The contest is at present only carried on in the English newspapers of your city, and if that is not sufficient to bring about a justifiable arrangment, i. e. for the salaries of all either to be placed on a gold basis or entirely on a paper basis, there will, I understand, be published in the native press of Buenos Aires some not at all favourable revelations, upon this matter of gold salaries, for the Argentine Great Western Railway Coy. Certainly it is not justice to pay, for instance, a bookeeper, because he is sent out from England, a salary of $ 100 gold, coming out at, with a premium of 270%, a total of about 370 dollars paper per month, while the other man, oftentimes more competent for the work, not on contract only gets $170, or say some 250 less than his contract brother.

B.A. AND ROSARIO RY. C.C. v. B.A. WESTERN RAILWAY C.C.

This match, which took place on Sunday, January 3rd, was played at Belgrano.

The home team went in first and were all disposed of for a total of 93 runs, of which Mr. W. Bond made 35.

After lunch the W. R. team went in to bat, and the 10th wicket was down for a total of 112 runs; Mr S P Watts having made the highest score for the visiting team, viz., 20 runs, so the result was a victory for the W. R. C. C. by 19 runs.

The best bowling on the field was by Messrs. Higgins and Baker for the Rosario and Western teams respectively.

W. Schoppe,
Hon. Sec. B. A. W. R.C.C.

RAILWAY ITEMS.

Both the N.R. Board and the Board of Public Works have reported favorably on the petition recently filed by the Central Argentine Railway to be allowed to use some new patent for collecting ashes in the locomotives.

The N.R. Board have laid before Government the official report on the proposed expropriation of land at Salto Station, Central Northern Railway. According to the report, the area to be expropriated covers 39,240 square metres, and the expropriation rate is fixed at $2 per square metre, say in all $78,480.

We note that the N.R. Board have asked Government to state that the decree issued in April last year in favour of the contractors was issued in favour of the company.

We take the following from a London exchange:—

"The interim report on the half year's working of the Central Argentine Railway is a pitiful document, and bears testimony in every line to the very real hardships suffered by those who have put money into undertakings for the development of the Republic, which has no conscience and a currency beneath contempt. The six months to 30th June showed a deficit of £15,000 after meeting fixed charges, and all on account of the depreciation of the paper dollar between 1890 and 1891. For had the dollar been worth even 1s 8d of its nominal par of 4s in 1891 the Central Argentine would have paid charges and showed practically as much of a surplus as it now shows a deficit. That would not have been a great deal to boast of, but it shows how closely the movements of the gold premium affect an undertaking which, through misfortune, hovers between solvency and the limbo of non-dividend paying.

Much comment was indulged in yesterday in railway circles on a petition which it is stated will be presented to the N R. Board to make the Companies responsible for delays in the carriage of goods. There will probably be a legal tussle over the question.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

It was a case of dead-heat yesterday between politics and the weather as to which was the hotter; and the whole population was half-dead with the excess of caloric. Off with the three C's—coats, cravats and collars—was the rule in every office in town; and all our lady visitors (God bless them!) accepted our profuse apologies for such demi-toilette with sympathising smiles. The Gold Eagle was so disgusted with the double-expansion heat that he screamed, soared, and frightened the poor little wits out of "bajista" gold dabblers, high, low and mixed-middling. The Bulls looked twenty years younger, as if just returned from a trip to Europe.

Things are now so unsettled in Mendoza and the attitude of the Governor is so openly hostile to the Legislature that the latter applied yesterday to the National Government for intervention. A Cabinet Council was held yesterday evening, and it was decided that the Minister of the Interior should first telegraph to the Governor, appealing to his patriotism to give the necessary guarantees to the Legislature, and if necessary placing the public forces at its orders, to make itself respected. The Minister at once telegraphed to the Governor to this effect. This news caused considerable excitement in town last night and was the absorbing topic in the clubs.

It was known last night that the present quarrel between the Buenos Ayres and Montevideo Health Boards has led the Government here to seriously consider the question, and a decree will be issued to-day declaring Montevideo an infected port. The Health Board yesterday petitioned Government to take this step.

Mr. Julian J. Muniz has been proposed to Government as Inspector General of Immigration, vice Mr. Oliver, deceased.

Look out, small fry. A gorgeous pantomime, with the scene laid in Paraguay, will shortly be produced at Carlo's circus.

We have several enquiries as to where tickets for the Irish Orphanage Art Union Drawing on the 17th can be purchased, in the centre of town.

The officers of the German squadron at Montevideo and the elite of society there have suffered a serious disappointment. The German Minister there had issued invitations to a grand ball, in honour of his sailor countrymen, when a telegram came from home announcing the death of his mother-in-law, and the "fiesta" had to be abandoned.

The Mayor of Mar del Plata, Mr. Clement Cayrol, won the pigeon-murdering match there on Sunday against all the swells from town. The "cotillon" in the Bristol Hotel was a great success.

Dame Rumour was in great fig yesterday. The old woman insists that we are on the eve of a state of siege.

We note that our usually slow, solemn and sedate London friends are becoming quite sour and sarcastic under their financial losses in South America. The Uruguayan Conversion scheme is now known in Capel Court as the Uruguayan Confiscation Scheme, so we fear that Sister Anne on the 'azotea' over the water will have to keep looking a little longer for anything favourable coming from that great and good man Dr. Ellauri, whose shadow must be rapidly growing less, through the sea of troubles in which his country is involved.

The potatoe crop this year is so large and the price is now so low that hawkers of vegetables find it is not worth their while to carry them about. On the other hand, we hear that an experiment in the way of exporting them to Europe is being made. We also hear of money made in exporting onions (which are also wonderfully plentiful this year) to Rio. If the Brazilians ate more onions they would be healthier and less addicted to the laughable farce of peaceful revolutions.

The following letter from London may possibly interest our sporting subscribers:—

"London, Dec. 14th 1891.

"Sir,

"I see by your paper Camors is said by Edward the Confessor. This should be by Fortissimo or Edward The Confessor You also say 5 years old. He is only four. According to our racing law here the horse would be disqualified for the races he has won.

"Yours, etc.
"A Breeder."

We find the following in a London financial paper of December 16th:—"It is said that the Argentine and Brazilian Governments intend to open negotiations with the European countries which have just concluded treaties of commerce The two South American Governments propose to increase the import duties on French products, as a measure of reprisal against the duties imposed by France on cereals and coffee."

When may we hope to see the Lord Mayor and the Chief of Police join shoulders for an effectual charge on the rascally book-dealers and miscreant photographers of the third order who are literally flooding this unfortunate city with the most abominably immoral books and photographs. It is a crying evil that has been growing for years and is morally destroying the rising generation. The law is quite strong enough to deal with it; then why do not the officials named put it in force at once? The present state of things is simply dreadful and revolting.

The many friends in this country of that clever diplomatist Sir Francis Clare Ford, son of the well-known "Handbook" Ford, and who twice represented England in this republic, will rejoice to hear of his appointment as British Ambassador in Constantinople. Always of vital importance in British diplomacy, this high post brings greater responsibilities than ever just now, as the next development of the Eastern Question cannot be far off. Judging from his past brilliant services, the new Ambassador may be confidently relied upon to effectually help his country to rule the whirlwind and rule the storm, when it comes.

Our friends of the English Literary Society liked their trip to La Plata the other day so much that they have organized another, to Colonia, for the 2nd of next month. Full particulars will be found in advertizement column, as regards tickets etc. Our prophetic soul is uneasy on one point only, the weather What if Neptune should play the excursionists a prank? Our mental vision becomes dim with sympathetic tears at the bare idea; though we understand that most of the E. L. S's are capital sailors.

The Revd. Dr. Smith will preach on Sunday 24th instant, at noon, at Las Flores.

We find the following in a New York paper, which shows that the Iron Duke was not the only General weak in spelling:—"If the despatch sent by General Forrest to announce the capture of Fort Pillow is a true bill it should be embalmed in history along with Cæsar's 'Veni, vidi, vici," and the hardly less famous message of the British general: "Peccavi I have Scinde." General Forrest is alleged to have written after the fort was taken: "We busted the fort at ninerclock and scatered the niggers. The men is still a cillanem in the woods." "Ninerclock" explains itself, and "cillanem" is interpreted to read "killing them."

The almost total disappearance of coppers from circulation is exercising the minds of a lot of people. Even humble copper refuses to dwell with the disreputable shinplaster. Government should order the Mint to coin nickle small change. The public are now settling down smiling to accept the two cent stamp in the tram cars. As a simple matter of fact and convenience, these stamps are more agreeable to carry than a lot of heavy coppers, and the guards freely take them back again for fares.

We move a vote of exuberant and "efusiva" thanks to the Lord Mayor for ordering that no more big bundles of clothes, washed or unwashed, are to be allowed in the tram cars.

Uruguay News "loquitur":—"We hear all the officers and men of the British men of war in port are going to Fitz-Patrick's Fotografia Inglesa, 117 Rincon, near the Plaza Matriz, to get photographed, for the new year, as they say Fitz is the only English photographer in town: but, as a Blue Jacket observed to us, a real first-rater at that, and no mistake; he just gives our boys the proper smart appearance their sweethearts loves to see, he does."

Whoever wants to shake the dust of this country from his feet, and go to New Zealand, where it is far dustier and duller, has only to refer to Messrs. Wilson and Sons' advertizement in another column.

There is a row going on in distant Salta, owing to the assertion of the Civico that a lot of public cash ($117,000—a big sum for such a pony-chaise province) has found its way into the wrong pocket.

The usually sleepy town of Lobos was jolted in o some life and animation on the night of the 9th, when a grand ball was given in the Municipality in honour of the popular new Justice of the Peace, Mr. Robert Murphy. An old subscriber tells us it was the grandest "hop" ever seen there. The room was full of Hiberno-Argentine belles, amongst them Mesd

Dear Sirs—
"I have tried HAYWARD'S "PASTE" DIP on my Sheep, and have pleasure in bearing testimony to ITS EFFICACY AS A DIP. I need have no hesitation in recommending it generally as a Cure for Scab, without discolouring or damaging the Wool.
The "PASTE" is in my opinion preferable to the Powder, and will probably have a larger sale than the latter."
Yours very truly
(Signed) JOHN KELLIE.

It has been proved by many important Estancieros that HAYWARD'S PASTE is more convenient to use than any other Dip, being already mixed and dissolving in any kind of water. It makes a smooth soapy bath which adheres well to the Fleece and leaves the wool clean and soft.

ON 'CHANGE.
Tuesday, Jan. 12th, 1892.
A wave of distrust swept over the market this morning and produced a considerable rise in the level of the gold premium. Political alarms were louder than ever to-day, and an impending state of siege was talked of in every corner of the hall. It is difficult to know what is going on, but something has evidently gone wrong; and whether a row is brewing here, in La Plata, Rosario, or in Mendoza, it is quite certain that the market has taken fright. The situation reminds one of the days that preceded the July revolution in 1890: then, as to-day, there were nightly alarms, the Cabinet met frequently to discuss the expediency of a state of siege, subordinate officers were arrested, and a general state of uneasiness prevailed; then, as to-day, everybody felt that something had gone wrong, but none knew where; the result we see in to-day's instinctive rise in gold and collateral weakness in exchange. It is idle to pooh-pooh the feeling of distrust: the danger of the situation is quite evident, and many people are preparing for any emergency.
In striking contrast to the anxiety of the market is the leave of absence of the President of the Republic, who is restoring his health in the briny atmosphere of Mar del Plata. The very Governor

The R.M.S. Clyde brings a large consignment of specie for this market, over £100,000. The bulk of this gold comes for one of our private banks.

The French packet Ortegal has arrived with yellow fever on board. One person died aboard and another is under treatment. Talking of yellow fever, there is a fresh difficulty between the Health Boards here and in the Mount. This systematic jealousy between both Boards will end in quarantine on all vessels from the Mount. The whole market protests against the conduct of the Montevidean Health Board. The Ortegal landed 86 passengers at Flores Island; the state of health on the island is reported good.

The slaughter of the Montevidean saladeros up to yesterday amounted to 59,724 head against 29,724 head for the same period last year.

The Bolsa Company have declared a dividend of 5$ per share for the end of 1891: this makes a ten per cent dividend for the year and speaks well for the management in these critical times.

National Bank of Uruguay shares fell to-day to 8.80; this is a heavy fall compared with last week's prices.

There was a calmer feeling in the market at the second ring. The slight political scare of the morning subsided, as the evening papers wisely refrained from fanning the blaze with fresh reports. Twelve thousand ounces were sold for to-morrow; the price opened at 62.40$, fell steadily, and closed pretty firm at 62.10. Six thousand sovereigns were sold for to-morrow at 19 35$ to 19.25$. La Plata Cedulas were somewhat firmer.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares to-day at the second ring:—

The Chairman of the Board of the Lavaderos Publicos Company has asked Government to cancel the debt of the Company to the City Improvement Works Committee. It appears that owing to the enormous consumption of water by the Company, the City Improvement Works Lesees agreed to give the water at 8 cents per cubic metre, but that the Municipality, by not observing the clauses of the contract, placed the Company in such serious straits that a lawsuit has sprung up and the concern is in liquidation.

In view of the circumstance that Paragraph 4, Art. 880, of the Ordenanzas, has become a dead-letter, the Finance Minister this evening sent a note to the Custom House Director, requesting him to revise the provisions of said article, which sets forth that invoices must specify quality, quantity, number of packages etc. The article is to come again into force from 15th inst.

Some exception is taken to the tenor of telegrams sent by some corporate body in this market to Europe. As an instance, it is stated that not long ago a message was wired that the wheat production of this year would be much smaller than that of last year, adding that the yield was very poor. In the absence of reliable statistics, it is difficult to make any sweeping assertion either one way or another, but a correspondent favours us with the following views on the wheat harvest, and we believe that his calculations are under the mark:—

"We estimate the wheat crop as follows:—

"Entre Rios.—The yield is much inferior to that of last year. While in 1891 the colonists harvested about 14 ton and more per square, they calculate about 1 ton on an average this year, and in some parts where they have threshed this calculation has proved right. On the other hand, the acreage underplough has increased greatly, and this will balance more or less the shortage in the yield.

"Santa Fé.—Notwithstanding a considerable increase in the average, we think there will be a falling-off in the crop on the Sunchales and narrow gauge line. On the Central Argentino and Oeste Santafecino lines, however, where there was a very poor crop last year (especially along the latter line), there will be fair quantities, which will make up more or less for the shortage on the other Santa Fé lines.

"Province of Buenos Ayres.—On the lines from Campana to San Nicolas, and from San Nicolas towards Pergamino and Junin, moderate quantities of wheat went forward last year, while this year the quality is very inferior and hardly fit for export. The Western line colonies promise a fair crop, especially the far West, and we may expect a small increase from there. The reports from the South are splendid; cutting has only just commenced, and if the rainy weather does not interfere with the harvest, we may expect a fair surplus for exportation from that quarter. We must mention here that in 1891 the crop in the South was completely lost through cold and drought.

"Considering:

1—That Entre Rios will give about the same yield as in 1891.

2—That Santa Fé will be the same.

3—That whatever shortage there may be in the North and North-West of this province will be covered by the colonies in the West and South of the Province

"We still calculate on a surplus of at least 50/70,000 tons from the South, which is equal to about 20 % on the figure of last year's export, which is generally estimated at 300,000 tons."

TEA

INJURIOUS TEA DRINKING.

In the "Daily Post" of September 2 appears a leading article—evidently from an analytical expert—showing that after 15 minutes "draw," Indian Tea yields 17·73 of tannin, while from China comes only 7·93. What this means few know, but those troubled with indigestion may realise in part by use of True China Tea for one week.

GUARANTEED PURE.

LAIDLAW'S

Tobacco Powder

Laidlaw's Tobacco Powder has many advantages over
Arsenic Powders and Pastes for curing Scab.
Arsenic PoWders and Pastes have many objectionable defects
Laidlaw's Tobacco Powder has none.
Arsenic Powders and Pastes are very dangerous and in many cases large lots of Sheep, Cattle and Horses have been killed by them.
Laidlaw's tobacco Powder has no bad effects on either Sheep or men applying it.
Laidlaw's Tobacco Powder costs less than Arsenic Powders and Pastes, is always of one uniform strength and can be relied upon with perfect confidence, and does not injure the wool, but on the contrary improves the quality and increases the quantity.

ARSENIC POWDERS AND PASTES
Dry and burn the wool, and diminish the quality and quantity.

EXTRACT OF TOBACCO.

According to numerous testimonials which we hold the extract of pure tobacco is the only infallible remedy to radically cure the scab in sheep and naturally the cheapest. As there are several trade marks like ours care must be taken to see that the extract beare the key marks, without which it is not genuine.

Directions for use

One part of extract mixed with 100 to 150 parts of hot or cold water for bath, and with 80 to 100 parts for hand curing.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S
CHLORODYNE.
The original and only genuine

Advice to Invalids.—If you wish to obtain quiet refreshing sleep, free from headache, relief from pain and anguish, to calm and assuage the weary achings of protracted disease, invigorate the nervous media and regulate the circulating systems of the body, you will provide yourself with that marvellous remedy discovered by D. J. Collis Brown, (late Army Medical Staff), to which he gave the name of CHLORODYNE, and which is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered
CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for Coughs, Consumption, Bronchitis Asthma.
CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.
CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation and Spasms.
CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis, etc.
From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, January 5, 1880.
To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russel Street, Bloomsbury, London. Lear Sir,—We embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the widespread reputation this justly esteemed medecine, Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan; but all over the East. As a remedy for general utility, we must question wether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are so sorry to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent, we could multiply instances "ad infinitum" of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhœa and Dysentery, Sapasms, Crampas, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative that have occurred under our personal observation dury many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we haye witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's from a firm Conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a deliberate Breach of Faith on the part of the Chemist to prescribe and Patient alike. We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes and Co., Chemist to prescribe and Patient alike. We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes and Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain. His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists.
CAUTION,—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne, was, undoubtedly, the Inventor of Chlorodine; that the story of the defendant Freeman "Times," July 13, 1864.
Sold in bottles at 1s. 1½/2d., 2s. 9d., 4. 6d., and 11s. each. None is genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.
CAUTION.—Beware of Piracy and Imitations.

LA TURQUIA
Macrs and Fishbein, London.
Calle San Martin 272 and Lavalle 1212
Rich assortment of legitimate Turkish cigarrettes and tobacco, the only kinds that do not injure smokers, being recommended by the most illustrious physicians in Europe and this country.
Whoever desires to preserve his health should smoke exclusively our tobacco, which is more aromatic and more palatable in comparison than any other. Dr. Pirovano says in his letter of 23rd December 1891 about our tobacco.
"Your tobacco is less prejudicial to the health than any I have yet tried."
Now Opened.
